

Become a Data-Driven Decision Maker

Exceptional analytical skills are in demand now more than ever. Experienced professionals will get expert advice to solve complex, real-time challenges at work through the new Executive Doctor of Business Administration (DBA) degree offered by the University of Pittsburgh Joseph M. Katz Graduate School of Business.

Who's Ready?

- Management professionals with at least eight years of experience and currently hold a middle to top management position plus other credentials.
- Those seeking to advance their careers in corporations, consulting firms, or government agencies in positions that would benefit from rigorous research skills in analyzing business problems.
- Individuals who are interested in clinical stream teaching positions in research-oriented schools or teaching positions.
- Our faculty members anchor our strong research culture and collaborative atmosphere in an urban location that provides access to business leaders to enhance the course work.

EXECUTIVE DOCTOR OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

Katz: Highly Ranked and Globally Recognized

Ranked among the best MBA programs by Financial Times, Forbes, and U.S. News & World Report.

Pitt is an R1 Research University and an AAU member, a set of only 66 prestigious institutions.

Among 5% of business schools accredited by Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business (AACSB).

Associate Academic Member of the Executive DBA Council.

“Our DBA students will have synergy at Katz—they’ll be doing schoolwork at work and work at school. They’ll be merging work and school together to make double use of their time.”

– Dennis Galletta, Professor of Business Administration and Director of the Katz Ph.D. program

“Many DBA programs do not focus on research or have the experience in research like our Katz faculty members. Learning from researchers who are at the cutting edge of their field gives our students insights into critical thinking and analytical skills to apply in their profession.”

– J. Jeffrey Inman, Associate Dean for Research and Faculty at Pitt Business
